A minimum of five scholarships up to an amount of $5,000 each will be given to scholarship recipients. Depending on the number of scholarship donations, additional scholarships may be given at lesser amounts. The funds will be prorated over the academic year following the application deadline with subsequent payments at the beginning of each term during the balance of the school year. Distribution of funds will be administered by Spaulding Admin Services and disbursed to the suitable official of each recipient's institution. The Railway Supply Institute, Inc. reserves the right to not distribute funding for any category in which there are no suitable applicants.

International Applicants: Students applying from outside of the United States and attending an accredited university outside of the U.S. will be judged along with other international applicants for one scholarship. Note: Parent company must be willing to facilitate payment to international institution if deemed necessary by RSI or applicant will not be able to receive awarded funds.

Application Process

To apply for the RSI Scholarship, materials listed below must be sent to the RSI Scholarship Coordinator along with the scholarship application. Mail materials to: Mila Spaulding, Spaulding Admin Services, Attn: RSI Scholarship, 18563 Willoughby Heights Lane, Rockville, VA 23146.

A completed application will consist of:

1. A completed 2020/2021 RSI scholarship application form.
2. A professional resume that contains work experience, education information, community service, involvement in organizations, and any other information the applicant feels appropriate.
3. A certified college transcript from the school or schools attended which includes college level work completed through December 31, 2019 plus courses in which currently enrolled to verify the applicant's full-time student status (at least 12 hours per semester). Transcripts printed from a website are not admissible.
4. An essay not exceeding 400 words on the following topic:

For nearly 200 years, the rail industry has played a crucial role in supporting domestic and international trade across North America. The importance of this trade has come into the spotlight recently with the negotiation of the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA), a pending free trade agreement between the United States, Mexico, and Canada that is currently awaiting ratification as of January 2020. In 400 words or less, draft a formal letter to your Member of Congress (U.S. and Mexican applicants) or Parliament (Canadian applicants) discussing whether or not you support this agreement and what advantages or disadvantages you believe it provides to your country. Note: Applicants may respond to the essay question in their primary language if they are not comfortable with English.

5. A letter of recommendation from a faculty member at the school in which the applicant is currently enrolled or an employee of a Railway Supply Institute member company or affiliate group (ABA, IAROO, LMOA, LRW, RSTA) other than the applicant's parent/guardian. The letter must be written on company/school letterhead.

Scholarship Application Deadline – June 12, 2020

All materials must be submitted to AND received by Spaulding Admin Services no later than June 12, 2020.
